Answer the following questions on the attached page

1. What do you expect from the Student Council? What do you think the Student Council does?

Student leaders show qualities that distinguish them from others. What makes you stand out in the crowd? What distinguishes you from your peers?

Are there any events or activities that you think the Student Council should add? What ideas do you have on improving the current event? Why?

“I understand that Student Council requires a high level of commitment, and that I will be expected to be present for 90% of all Student Council events. Student Council is a UIL activity, and I must maintain acceptable grades (70% or better in all classes). I acknowledge that I will be held to a higher standard than my peers, and any behavior that violates the RCHS Student Code of Conduct may be grounds for disciplinary action, probation, or immediate removal from the council.”
